Letters From the People

Honolulu, May 14, 1909.

Editor Advertiser: In the Hawaiian Star of the 12th inst. there is a paragraph headed, "Church Saves Korean," which contains certain misstatements. Will you grant me the opportunity of correcting these through your columns? Kim Kyeng Sam, the defendant in a recent police-court case, is well known to me as an industrious, honest member of the community. He has three times been held in jail for "investigation," and as many times been released. The lady who employed him last for "a day or two" was entirely satisfied with his work and general conduct. She did not discharge him "for the reason that she was missing things." On the contrary, she expressed to me her regret at his sudden disappearance, he having been arrested without cause and held without warrant by the police for a period of five days. Judge Humphreys did not ask for a nolle prosequi, the prosecuting counsel being responsible for the dismissal of the case. Thanking you, faithfully yours,

IDA BUCHLY.

You may just as well save the money as give it to the government. There will be ten per cent penalty on unpaid taxes after Saturday.
